Comes with Free Miniature File!

An adventure for
Level 3-5 Characters

RUNS LIKE CLOCKWORK!

Talk of a mirage resembling a giant floating lotus flower is making waves in Ormpur, a city of wealth, dreams and adventure. It is not long before the rich and influential take an interest in the mysteries of this strange apparition.

The rumors lead to the Shaar Desolation. A fascinating, yet hostile place. Beyond predators, quicksand, hostile nomadic tribes and a dragon, the mechanical mirage awaits. A secret fortress so ancient that it has become legend and myth even for the wise members of the Shaheen tribe.

A sinister genius keeps this engineered wonder running. Will you be the sand in the gears of its megalomaniac plans? Or will the machine grind you into dust?
